Purchase $10.00 tickets to see The Coterie's world premiere of Horse Power: Tom Bass' American Story, which tells the inspiring story of Tom Bass, a Missourian born in slavery who became the greatest horseman of his time and started the American Royal's first horse show, and how his legacy inspires one Kansas City teenager as she grapples with what modern day racism looks like. Horse power is produced as part of the American Royal's 125th Anniversary. Live on The Coterie's mainstage for ages 9+. Offer valid October 1-6, 2024. Cannot be combined with other offers or applied to previous purchases and is subject to ticket availability. Call the box office at 816-474-6552 and mention Crown Center's Homeschool Week or get information and purchase online using the code CCHSWEEK at www.thecoterie.org.

Homeschool families, join us for these fun & free events during the month of October!

Kaleidoscope

Saturday, October 5: Celebrate the fun of books and reading with book-themed art activities and creative bookmark making. Bonus: Free mystery book giveaway with children's books provided by Hallmark's Creative Library. One book per child, while supplies last.

All Month Long: Kaleidoscope and UNICEF USA are teaming up to celebrate the tradition of Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF. Use art materials to design your own little box to take with you to trick-or-treat for UNICEF on Halloween! More information at hallmarkkaleidoscope.com.

Hallmark Visitors Center

Friday, October 11: Hallmark Live! Is back! Drop by the Hallmark Visitors Center on the second Friday of every month from 10:30am – noon to meet and see a Hallmark creative at work. On October 11, Senior Artist Jack Pullan will demonstrate how he creates concepts and illustrations for greeting cards, gifts, books, calendars, ornaments, and other fun stuff.

Enjoy a discount all October long for any homeschool student 18 and under. A discounted rate of $6.00 provides ticketed access to all gallery areas of the Museum and Memorial along with a free National WWI Museum and Memorial Family Guide.

Discount tickets are only available onsite at the Ticketing Counter. Please be advised all students under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult.
